Plywood Canoe Workshop

October 4-5, 2008

Hurry, registration deadline is September 22, 2008!

Learn how to build a 14' plywood canoe at the October 4-5 Plywood Canoe Workshop and WIN A CANOE! The Scenic Rivers Stream Team Association and the Missouri Department of Conservation are hosting this hands-on workshop at the Prairie Fork Conservation Area north of Jefferson City (Prairie Fork CA is approximately 30 miles east of Columbia, MO off Interstate 70, see map below). More information about the last canoe workshop and details about building a canoe can be viewed at <http://www.mostreamteam.org/documents/Archive/canoewks.pdf>.

Two lucky participant will take home a canoe built at the workshop through a drawing conducted at the end of the workshop. Students will help instructors Ted Haviland, Steve Greathouse, and Bob Schulz build two canoes, including all necessary steps from cutting the plywood to applying the finish. Each student will receive a full set of plans.

Primitive camping at Whetstone Conservation Area is conveniently located within 5 miles of the workshop. Several motels are located at Kingdom City about 15 miles away (see list on reverse side).

Enrollment is limited to 15 students, so send your registration as soon as possible. A nominal fee of $40.00 is required to help cover expenses.

For more information, contact Bob Schulz at: 573/522-4115x3595 or e-mail bob.schulz@mdc.mo.gov.
